Samuel Awoyinfa, Abeokuta

Some gunmen, suspected to be assassins, have killed a man, his wife and four children in an attack on Tuesday in their home in the Atiba area of Odogbolu, Ogun State.

The name of head of the family was given as Sheik Yusuf Tanimola who was in his 30s.

Among Tanimola's four children were twins who were two years old.

Many of them claimed that they did not hear any strange sound and did not suspect any foul play until they saw the corpses of the family members.

It was gathered the house of the Tanimolas was a bevy of activities as residents and sympathisers thronged the residence.

The state Police Public Relations Officer, Abimbola Oyeyemi, said the command had deployed men in the community in a bid to unravel those behind the killing.

He said, “The Commissioner of Police has deployed men of the homicide section, the Federal Special Anti-Robbery Squad and Anti-kidnapping unit in the community.

“We are already profiling the identities of the killers; we will get them.”
