

Unknown persons kill woman on parents' farm

Published July 17, 2017

Share

Tweet

Peter Dada, Akure

Some yet-to-be-identified persons have reportedly murdered a lady, identified as Bosede Akinlalu, in her parents' farm in Ode Aye, in the Okitipupa Local Government Area of Ondo State.

It was gathered that the 24-year-old young woman had gone to the farm along with two men on Friday when the suspected assassins attacked them.

READ: Gunmen kill Vice Principal during school hour in Akwa Ibom

A source said, “When they got to the farm, they met armed men. On sighting them, Akinlalu and her companions fled, but they were chased by the gunmen.

“While the two men escaped, the lady was unlucky as she was attacked and killed.

“When the men got home and reported what happened to them, some youths were mobilised to the farm, where they saw the lifeless body of Akinlalu with machete cuts on her body.”

The Public Relations Officer of the Ondo State Police Command, Mr. Femi Joseph, confirmed the incident, adding that the command had commenced investigation into the matter.

READ ALSO: How Osun perm sec was kidnapped, hacked to death

He said, “We have not made any arrest yet, but investigation has commenced; we will definitely get the killers.”

Joseph advised residents of the state to always be security conscious.