The Chairman of Action Democratic Party in the Jos East Local Government Area of Plateau State, Waziri Fursum, has been assassinated by some unknown gunmen.

The party's Director of Media, Kayode Jacobs, said he was murdered by assassins on Thursday night."

"We urge security officials to do the needful as we suspect political motive.

Waziri Fursum was until his murder a leading light in Plateau Politics," he stated.

The Plateau State chairman of the ADP, Chief Andrew Daman, told journalists at the party's secretariat on Saturday that Fursum was killed in his village at about 9pm after several gunshots.

late Jos East ADP chairman was assassinated by wicked dare devils that pumped 16 bullets into his body.”

Daman called on security operatives to unravel those behind the killing.

He said, “We will not accept anything short of arresting those behind the killing of our gentle and unassuming LGA chairman. We demand fortified security protection for all the ADP leaders in the country as the All Progressives Congress sees us as a threat.”

Efforts to get the reaction of the spokesperson for the Plateau State police command, Matthias Tyopev, failed as he did not return calls made to his mobile.
