

ASP arrested for allegedly killing seven farmers

Published January 5, 2018

Share

Share

Tweet

The Adamawa State Police Command on Thursday confirmed the arrest of a policeman who was alleged to have killed seven farmers in the state.

The News Agency of Nigeria reports that the arrest followed a petition by a non-governmental organisation, Progressive Mind for Development Initiate.

The petition signed by the President of the organisation, Abubakar Abdulsalam, alleged that the officer, an Assistant Superintendent of Police, committed the offence on November 23, 2017.

It stated that the policeman, while in charge of a Safer Highways patrol team, arrested the farmers who were working on their farms on the outskirts of Gombi town, tied and shot them to death.