

The first road crash occurred at Alakara, Oke Odan, along Owode-Idiroko Road and it reportedly claimed four lives.

PUNCH Metro learnt that the accident involved a Ford bus carrying 18 passengers and a Cabster van with two passengers.

The driver of the Ford bus, with the number plate KSF 01 XC, reportedly engaged in wrongful overtaking at a bend.

Our correspondent learnt that the bus consequently had a head-on collision with the oncoming Cabster van, with the number plate LSD 491 XQ, which was on its own lane.

The bus, our correspondent gathered, was travelling from Idiroko to Sango-Ota.

The Public Relations Officer, Ogun State Traffic Compliance and Enforcement Corps, Babatunde Akinbiyi, said four passengers died, including the driver, while the other passengers suffered varying degrees of injury.

He said, “Those who died in the bus, according to a report from our operatives who went to the scene, were four. They were three females and one male.

“Their corpses have been deposited in the General Hospital, Ilaro, in the Yewa South Local Government Area, while those who were injured are receiving treatment at the General Hospital, Idiroko.”
