

the evening as auspicious in the Eight killed in Kaduna village attack

Godwin Isenyo, Kaduna

SOME bandits struck at Kurega Village in the Chikun Local Government Area of Kaduna State, killing eight persons.

Kurega Village bordered by Birnin-Gwari LG had come under heavy attacks from bandits.

According to the BBC, the democracy lecture delivered

An eyewitness said the bandits stormed the village, shooting at anybody at sight.

Mostly affected, he said, were hunters, saying that eight bodies were recovered from the bush.

One of those killed, he said, was the head of the vigilante group in the area, adding that the bandits also escaped with and that the time has come for Nigerians to begin to tell gun wounds.

The incident, the eyewitness said, took place between 2pm and 3pm, saying that those killed and injured had since been taken to a hospital at Udawa Village, also in Chikun LGA.

According to a source, the bandits took away some cattle.