

The policeman who was the security aide to Kabiru Onyene, the Special Adviser to Governor Yahaya Bello of Kogi State on Domestic Matters, died when their vehicle came under attack from unknown gunmen on Friday evening.

READ ALSO: 2019 Presidential Election: Live Updates

Onyene and his aides were attacked while leaving his Agassa GRA residence along Obehira road in Okene Local Government Area of Kogi State at about 6pm.

But while he survived the attack with minor injuries, his three aides sustained varying degrees of gunshot wounds but his police aide reportedly died.

The Kogi State Police spokesman, DSP William Aya, could not be reached for comment as calls to his phone rang out. He had yet to reply an SMS sent to his phone on the incidents.