

Suspected robbers kill motorcyclist in Osun

Published April 3, 2019

KINDLY SHARE THIS STORY

File Photo: Gun

Bola Bamigbola, Osogbo

Suspected armed robbers, on Tuesday, shot dead a commercial motorcyclist, identified simply as Ayomo, in Erin Osun, Irepodun Local Government Area of Osun State.

After killing the deceased, the robbers were said to have taken away his new motorcycle.

Sources said Ayomo's corpse was found behind the Kabello filling station in Erin Osun around 6am by some residents of the area.

The deceased, who was a resident of Elesin compound in Erin Osun, according to sources, might have been lured out by his killers on the pretext of hiring him to convey them to another part of the town.

A commercial motorcyclist in the town, who preferred anonymity, said many of his colleagues had been victims of armed robbers in the past.

The corpse of the deceased was later taken to the Ojutu Police Station in Ilobu by some of his colleagues.

READ ALSO: Four feared killed in fresh Jukun/Tiv clashes in Taraba

Confirming the incident, the Public Relations Officer, Osun State Police Command, Folashade Oloro, said the incident was already being investigated with a view to apprehending the killers and bringing them to justice.