THE Chief Security Officer at the National Secretariat of the All Progressives Congress in Abuja, Adamu Aso, died on Tuesday after he was knocked down by a vehicle.

The retired Deputy Superintendent of Police was said to be returning from Kano State where he had gone to see his family before he was knocked down by the unidentified driver while trying to cross the road around Garki Police Barracks in Abuja.

"He had just recovered from diabetes-related illnesses before he decided to travel home to see his family. His death is painful to us," a worker at the secretariat told our correspondent.

The APC National Publicity Secretary, Lanre Issa-Onilu, said in a statement Aso, a Muslim, was buried in Abuja on Wednesday.
