A final-year student of Sociology at the Benue State University, Makurdi, Terviihima Peter, has been killed by suspected cultists.

The incident happened at Gyado villa on Monday.

According to a source, the area, which has high concentration of student hostels, is prone to cult attacks.

PUNCH Metro gathered that two students were killed two weeks earlier.

The Police Public Relations Officer, Catherine Anene, confirmed the incident.

She noted that the victim was killed in a cult clash around 7.50pm on Monday.

“Someone identified as Tervishima Simon Peter, a final-year student of Sociology at the Benue State University died in the clash.
