

Cultist allegedly hacks six to death in Ogun

Published May 2, 2020

Ogun State Police Commissioner, Kenneth Ebrimson

Daud Olatunji

Pandemonium broke out in Ogere, Iperu, Ilisan and other communities in Ikenne Local Government Area of Ogun State when a suspected cultist and drug addict identified as Feyisola Dosumu went on the rampage and reportedly killed six persons in the communities.

It was learnt that Dosumu, a graduate of Moshood Abiola Polytechnic, Abeokuta, and a notorious cultist had started hacking down people since Thursday.

Findings revealed that Dosumu was alleged to have killed two private guards working at Agro Farm and one elderly Togolese on Thursday.

It was further gathered that another unidentified teenager was also killed at Ogere on Friday night while he reportedly macheted three others to death at Iperu Remo on Saturday.

When contacted, the state Police Public Relations Officer, DSP, Abimbola Oyeyemi confirmed the incident but could not confirm the number of deaths.

Oyeyemi explained that the police have launched a manhunt for the suspected killer terrorising Ogun communities.

The PPRO maintained that the police would ensure that the suspect is arrested no matter his mental state.

Oyeyemi said, “We are looking for the man, we have dispatched some officers to look for him.

“We learnt that he has gone into hiding. Any moment from now we are hoping to get him. “