

Meanwhile, the remains of a policeman, Paul Omaji, and a yet-to-be identified motorcyclist were recovered on Sunday at Marwa and Ikota along the Lekki-Epe Expressway in Lagos State.

PUNCH Metro gathered that a hit-and-run driver killed Omaji, while the motorcyclist reportedly lost control and rammed into an electric pole.

Confirming the incidents, the Public Relations Officer, Lagos State Emergency Management Agency, Nosa Okunbor, said, “A police officer, Paul Omaji, was found dead. Investigation revealed that an unidentified vehicle hit the officer on his way to his duty post. The corpse has been deposited in the morgue.

“Also, a commercial motorcyclist was found dead. Investigation revealed that the deceased was on motion when he lost control and rammed into an electric pole on the road median. He died on the way to a nearby hospital.”
