

Gunmen abduct three, flood kills one in Abuja

Published June 26, 2020

File photo

Adelani Adepegba, Abuja

Gunmen have reportedly abducted three persons in the Pegi community, Kuje Area Council of the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja.

The unidentified victims were said to have been kidnapped while returning from work around 10pm on Wednesday.

This is the third abduction in the community in the last one year.

The Chairman, Pegi Community Development Association, Taiwo Aderibigbe, who confirmed the incident on Thursday, said three vehicles were abandoned along the bush path leading into the community without occupants.

Aderibigbe said a quick check on Thursday morning revealed that the vehicles had been removed.

The FCT police spokesman, DSP Anjuguri Manzah, confirmed the incident, stating that the command was investigating it.

Meanwhile, one Mr James Odeh has died after being swept away by flood in the Lokogoma District of Abuja.

The FCT Emergency Management Agency said the victim's body was recovered by the FEMA search and rescue team in a flooded river in the Dogon-Gada area, near the Efab Housing Estate, Lokogoma, on Wednesday.