

Meanwhile, a yet-to-be-identified motorist crushed a motorcyclist to death on the Long Bridge on Sunday.

PUNCH Metro gathered that the motorist was heading to a destination in the state when he lost control of the vehicle and crushed the motorcyclist to death.

Another motorcyclist, who was also plying the route, was reportedly knocked down by the motorist.

The second motorcyclist, however, survived the crash and was rushed to the Oakland Hospital, Warewa, for treatment.

An eyewitness, Quadri Aderibigbe, said the motorcyclist's corpse had been deposited in a mortuary, adding that the other victim suffered minor injuries.

He stated that policemen from the Warewa Division, led by Afeniforo, arrested the driver and impounded his vehicle.

Aderibigbe said, "The accident involved a black Acura car and two motorcyclists. The driver of the car lost control of the vehicle and knocked down both victims.

"One of the motorcyclists died on the spot, while the other survived the accident, but sustained minor injuries.

"From what I gathered, the injured motorcyclist has been taken to the Oakland Hospital for treatment, while the corpse was deposited in the Divine Touch Private Mortuary in Ibafo."
