

The CP said the video showed the suspects interrogating the victim in the Odogunyan area of Ikorodu before he was killed, adding that the Inspector-General of Police, Mohammed Adamu, had directed that the cultists must be arrested for prosecution.

READ ALSO: Guard jailed 16 years for sexually exploiting girls in judges' quarters

Odumosu stated, “SARS operatives arrested one of the suspects, Francis Diamond, aka Iron man, who confessed to being among the suspects and that he was the one, who recorded the video showing the killing of the young man. Eight other members of the gang were arrested. They are: Olaitan Apanpa, 31; Chidi Michael, 25; Eno Sunday, 25; Saheed Gbadebo, 23; Adepeju Azeez, 38; Samuel Ilesanmi; Omotosho Quadri, 25; and Moses Ogungbe, 28.

“It was revealed that Olaitan Apanpa pulled the trigger that killed the victim. The suspects are members of the Eiye

Some of the suspects

Confraternity and they said the reason for killing the victim was that he participated in the killing of one of their leaders in the University of Ibadan early this year. Saheed Gbadebo single-handedly killed two persons on Bayeku Street, Ikorodu, and five persons at Ajah. The suspects will be charged.”