

Also on Saturday evening, a police sergeant attached to the Aramoko division was crushed to death by a vehicle along Efon Alaaye-Aramoko Road.

Sources said the policeman, who resided at Efon Alaaye, was on a motorcycle when the vehicle crushed him.

A source said the deceased cop was on his way to work when the crash occurred.

The PPRO said, “The corpse of the sergeant has been deposited in a morgue, while the driver of the vehicle is in a hospital receiving treatment for the injuries he sustained in the crash.

“The police are investigating the incident with a view to ascertaining the cause of the accident.”
