

In Lagos, a yet-to-be-identified driver and passenger lost their lives on Monday in an accident on the Third Mainland Bridge, inward the Iyana Oworo area of the state.

PUNCH Metro gathered that the driver was conveying his passengers to a destination when the vehicle had a flat tyre.

The Head of Public Affairs, Lagos State Emergency Management Agency, Nosa Okunbor, who confirmed the deaths, said a passenger who survived the accident said the driver refused to listen when warned against speeding.
