Five people have been killed in a fatal crash in Gwarangah village on Bar-Bogoro Road in Bauchi State.

Five other people sustained varying degrees of injury in the crash, which occurred on Saturday night.

The victims were said to be returning from the Zaar Cultural Festival, known as Lemb Zaar, which held at the Tafawa Balewa town.

The Chairman of Bogoro Local Government Area, Iliya Habila, disclosed this in a statement of condolence to the families of the deceased persons.

The statement was signed by the Information Officer of the LGA, Gobna James, on behalf of the council chairman.

James said the council boss also visited the five injured persons who were admitted to the Bogoro General Hospital.

“The executive chairman expressed sadness over the incident which robbed the community of the young men and urged the families to consider it as their destiny.

“The deceased were able-bodied young men who were contributing their quota to the development of the area and the state in general.

“In a response, the hamlet head of Gwarangah Gungu, Chief Dadi Nabasu, expressed sadness over the loss, describing it as a setback for the community,” the statement said.
