Ted Odogwu, Kano

An unidentified assailant, on Monday, beheaded a man identified simply as Malam Nuhu, residing in Tumfafi village, Garko Local Government Area of Kano State.

According to an eyewitness, the assailant had earlier threatened to kill Nuhu some days back when he went to his house and stabbed him in his hand.

It was gathered that shortly after he beheaded Nuhu, the assailant ran away from the scene to an unknown destination.

Angered by the gruesome murder of his father, the son stormed out of the house and traced the killer, but unfortunately for him, the assailant overwhelmed him and stabbed him all over his body until he slumped and died.

The eyewitness stated that both the father and son were buried around 9am in Tumfafi amidst tears.

As of the time of filing this report, the state Police Public Relations Officer, DSP Abdullahi Haruna, could not be reached for a comment as his mobile telephone indicated that it was not reachable.
