Four persons have been arrested by the Yobe State Police Command over the mysterious death of a teenage girl at one of the government lodges in Damaturu, the state capital.

The 18-year-old girl was said to have been found dead on Thursday at the lodge.

The cause of her death had yet to be ascertained as of the time of filing the report.

The corpse of the deceased was deposited at the State Specialist Hospital, Damaturu, awaiting autopsy.

The state Police Public Relations Officer, Dungus Abdulkarim, said the charges against the suspect would become clear after an autopsy on the corpse.

Abdulkarim said the case had been transferred to the State Criminal Intelligence and investigative Department.

“Four suspects are in our custody over a ‘suspected’ charge of homicide. The charges of the case will come out clearly after an autopsy is carried out on the body.

“Yes, we have four suspects in our custody over the suspected homicide (killing) of one girl who died at a government lodge in Damaturu. The case is now with the state CID under investigation.”
