

Gunmen shoot Delta father of three dead in vehicle, spare others

Dele Ogunyemi, Warri

A father of three, Mr Emeke Ojere, has been shot dead by gunmen.

The victim, who resided at the PTI axis of Warri, was shot in his car on Saturday at Ugboimro community in the Uvwie Local Government Area of Delta State.

His driver, identified only as Egbahon, told journalists that he was in the car with his

• Ojere boss and another occupant when the gunmen struck.

“We went to Ogbomro community to visit one of our townsmen, but suddenly gunmen blocked us and asked us to lie down. Oga was shot at and they left,” Egbahon said.

PUNCH Metro gathered that the murder had already been reported at the Ebrumede Police Station after DSC Roundabout, Warri.

The Police Public Relations Officer, Delta State Command, DSP Onome Onovwakpoyeya, confirmed the incident.

She said, “Operatives are intensifying efforts to nab the fleeing culprits.”

s in Lagos

In another development, police operatives attached to the Meiran division of the command arrested two suspected armed robbers at Ikola Ipaja Bridge.

Adejobi said, “The suspects were stopped on a motorbike before they were arrested and searched.

has directed that all the 15 suspects be transferred to State CID Panti, Yaba, for proper investigation, while he assured the good people of Lagos State of adequate security and conducive environment to live in and do business as expected.”