

house of representatives on firm to say the truth.

YAKASAI.

Invading bandits killed seven in Kaduna fresh attack – Commissioner Godwin Isenyo, Kaduna others.

SOME bandits in separate attacks, raided two local government areas of Igabi, Kajuru in Kaduna State, killing seven persons and injured

The state Commissioner for Internal Security and Home Affairs, Mr Samuel Aruwan, confirmed the attacks on Sunday in a statement.

The commissioner, who

o face prosecution for car theft, robbery

snatchers, drug peddlers, recover exhibits,' two suspects – Olamide Atanda, 29, and Raphael, 32 – were apprehended for snatching a vehicle after attacking their victim along Lugbe axis.

The vehicle was reportedly recovered by police operatives on stop-and-search operations along Abaji axis.

The statement read, "Exhibits recovered from the suspects are one white Toyota Hilux, one ash Toyota Corolla, one locally-fabricated rifle, 21 unexpended cartridges and one fabricated marking gun. All the suspects have been arraigned except the car snatching syndicate; they will be arraigned upon conclusion of investigation."

based his information on reports from security agencies, said the bandits attacked Kajinjiri village in the Igabi LGA and killed two residents, Ibrahim Rabi'u and Abdulrahman Mohammad.

He added that one person, Kamal Murtala, sustained gunshot injury.

He added that the bandits attacked Rago village also of Igabi LGA and killed Alhaji Ibrahim Iro and Muhammadu Rabi'u.

"In a separate incident, gunmen also invaded Kutura station in Kajuru LGA and killed three residents; Michael Shadari, Clement Bili and Danlami Shaban," he added.

Oil firm seeks best communities support