

Pregnant mother of eight stabs husband to death in Delta

Oluwatosin Omojuyigbe

A pregnant mother of eight children, identified simply as Dada, has been arrested for stabbing her husband, Jonathan, to death in the Otomi community, Uwheru, in the Ughelli Local Government Area of the Delta State.

It was gathered that the suspect returned late from work on Monday, April 5, 2021, when an argument ensued between her and her husband.

PUNCH Metro learnt that the argument degenerated into a fight and the woman allegedly stabbed the deceased with a knife.

An eyewitness, who spoke on

• The suspect condition of anonymity, said the deceased had warned the woman against coming home late.

The eyewitness stated, "The wife used to come home late from work and the husband had warned her to stop. On the date of the incident, the wife came home late as usual and the husband accused her of flouting his instructions.

"They started arguing on the matter, but all of a sudden, the wife took a knife and started chasing the husband till she stabbed him to death."

Our correspondent learnt that the matter was reported at the Ughelli Police Station.

When contacted, the acting Police Public Relations Officer, Edafe Bright, confirmed the incident to our correspondent.

"The command is aware of the matter and the woman was arrested by policemen from the Ughelli Police Station and the matter was transferred to the state CID today (Wednesday)," he said.
