

Bandits kill seven in Niger community fresh attack

Adebayo Ayinde 7 May 2021

Kindly share this story:

Bandits have killed seven persons in Yangalu community in the Magama Local Government Area of Niger State.

The bandits were said to have invaded the community on motorcycles and shot indiscriminately to scare away the people.

It was gathered that the bandits, before leaving the community, destroyed properties and foodstuffs.

The Chairman of the Magama LGA, Sufiyanu Yahaya, visited the community over the development.

Yahaya also called for measures that would improve the security situation in the area.

Read Also

► Niger, Zamfara hold talks, troops locate students, workers in forest

- ▶ Niger school invasion: Bandits tied 42 abductees in pairs, fled to bush on motorbikes — Resident
- ▶ Bandits invade Niger again, kill 10 vigilantes, youths, kidnap 24

Efforts to get police confirmation proved abortive as the command spokesman, Wasiu Abiodun, could not be reached.