The bandits were said to have also attacked a police station, which they burnt down.

Recall that the bandits had on Monday attacked Beri in Bobi district, leaving a mobile policeman and 14 other villagers dead.

The Director General, Niger State Emergency Management Agency, Ibrahim Inga, on Tuesday, said the agency got a report of the attacks, adding that the bandits also rustled an unconfirmed number of cattle at Maigoge village, also in Mariga LGA of the state.

"Three persons were killed and several others injured and displaced in Kanfanin Bobi in Mariga LGA this (Tuesday) morning," he added.

The State Police Public Relations Officer, DSP Wasiu Abiodun, did not take his calls.
