

Meanwhile, Some bandits have invaded Goska community in the Jema'a LGA of Southern Kaduna, killing four persons, including two farmers, while a woman sustained gunshot wounds.

Aruwan, who confirmed the incident, was silent on when it happened.

Read Also

- ▶ American rapper Lil Loaded dies at 20
- ▶ Ondo varsity laments as 200-level student commits suicide
- ▶ Abduction: El-Rufai under fire over bombardment comment

However, the commissioner identified those killed to include Wakili Kon, Yusuf Joshua, Martha Ayuba and Lami Peter.

According to him, Kon and Joshua were attacked on their farms by the assailants.

He said, "Security agencies have reported a deadly attack on Goska community in Jema'a LGA.

"According to reports, the armed bandits invaded the community and killed four residents."

"One woman, Laraba Silas, sustained gunshot injuries and was rushed to a hospital."