

Woman murdered, vital parts removed in Kwara

Tunde Oyekola 12 June 2021

Kindly share this story: f t w in

NSCDC

Suspected ritualists have reportedly hacked a woman to death and dumped her body along Kanikoko area of Kaiama in the northern part of Kwara state.

Saturday Punch gathered that after the murder, which took place at midnight on Thursday, her private part and, breasts were removed and the body dumped by the roadside.

The spokesperson for the Nigeria Security and Civil Defence Corps, Babawale Afolabi, who confirmed the incident, said, "On Thursday, June 10, 2021 at about 1230hrs, one Hassana Mohammed (F) of Yarugaba compound Kaiama was murdered and her body dumped along Kanikoko Road, Kaiama, by some suspected ritualists.

"The deceased was not found at home and also not answering calls made to her phone. Security agents were alerted and the vigilantes, in search of the girl, found her dead along Kanikoko Road, Kaiama."

Read Also

- Five arrested over murder of land agent in Lagos
- Guard, friend kill lady, dismember body in Osun
- PUNCH Diaspora: Nigerian, Etute accused of killing man posing as woman on dating app