

Suspected herdsmen kill father, two sons in Taraba

Justin Tyopuusu, Jalingo

Gantang village in the Gassol Local Government Area of Taraba State.

happened at about 1 am on Wednesday.

Gassol local government areas should return to their homes unconditionally.

GUNMEN suspected to be herdsmen in the early hours of Wednesday killed three persons in an attack on Jauro

A local resident, Mr. Terkimbi Orkurga, told our correspondent on the phone that the attack

"The attackers killed a man and his two sons in the attack, while a woman who sustained gunshot wound in the attack is receiving treatment at the First Referral Hospital in Mutum Biyu.

When contacted, the Police Public Relations Officer, Taraba State Police Command, David Misal, said he had yet to receive report of the attack.

media attacks against Rivers curfew – Wike been succeeding in kidnapping, have been sending people to go on radio to say the governor should be reasonable and that they don't had awarded $1.1bn to the state in a lawsuit against the Federal Government.

The attack came few days after Governor Darius Ishaku ordered that all displaced persons in the recent attacks in Bali and

However, the Public Relations Officer, Nigeria Immigration Service, Ayuba Tijos, confirmed the attack.

Wike is interested in peace, unity, not Nigeria's h