

Command probes three sisters' death after rice meal in A'Ibom

Patrick Odey, Uyo

THE Akwa Ibom State police command has commenced investigation into the death of three sisters who gave up the ghost after eating rice.

The sisters identified as UduakObong, 30 years, Blessing, 18, and Uduak Obong's seven years old daughter who resided at Obio Etoi, near Nest of Champion International Stadium, were said to have eaten rice together before their death.

A statement on Monday by the command's Public Relations Officer, Odiko Macdon, said, "Preliminary findings shows that they ate rice and stew before going to bed the previous night of the sad incident."

The statement further stated that the command also arrested one Samuel Cosmos Akpan in connection with the alleged murder of one Ubong Solomon.
