

Two die, others injured in Lagos church stampede

Kindly share this story:

By Ayoola Olasupo

20th August 2022

Lagos State Police Public Relations Officer, SP Benjamin Hundeyin

The Lagos State Police Command said on Friday that two people died during a stampede at the Comfort Life Mission International Church, Lagos.

City Round learnt that there was stampede during a congregational service at the church located in the Ikotun axis of the state.

Identities of the victims were unknown as of the time this report was filed. But it was gathered that the dead victims were a 45-year-old woman and a 5-year-old girl.

Related News

Church stampede: NEMA distributes relief materials to victims in Rivers

Rivers church mourns, traces victims' families, club shut after stampede

Wike, CP order probe as 31 die in Rivers church stampede

It was also learnt that five other persons who slumped during the incident were rushed to Isolo General Hospital for proper medical attention.

Contacted, the command's Spokesperson, Benjamin Hundeyin, also confirmed the incident to our correspondent.

Hundeyin said, "Yes, I confirm the incident. The families of the victims need to be aware first before I disclose their identities."