neighbour in the neck with a broken bottle while his mother held the victim during a fight.

The Police Public Relations Officer in the state, DSP, Abimbola Oyeyemi, disclosed this in a statement on Friday.

Oyeyemi said that the suspects had been arrested following a distress call received by the police at Ojodu Abiodun Divisional Headquarters.

He said the police were told that while Godwin who resides at Akoko Crescent, Yakoyo area of Ojodu went to the compound of the deceased at Omolara Street Yakovo, he was sent away from the compound having where the deceased was met in the compound. While the mother was quarrelling with the deceased and demanding the reason why her son was sent away, the son, who is deaf and dumb, took a broken bottle which he brought with him and used it to stab the deceased on her neck.

“Upon the distress call, the DPO, Ojodu Abiodun, SP Eytayo Akinluwade, mobilised his men and moved to the scene, where the two suspects were apprehended and the victim rushed to a nearby hospital for treatment. But she was pronounced dead by the doctor on duty. The corpse has been deposited at the mortuary for autopsy.”

The PPRO, however, said that the state Commissioner of Police Lanre Bankole, had ordered the immediate transfer of the suspects to the homicide section of the state Criminal Investigation and Intelligence Department for further investigation.

Oyeyemi added, “The CP said the suspects would be charged to court as soon as the investigation is concluded.”
