

But when contacted the State

Amotekun hunts ritualists as Osun sex worker vomits

Bola Bamigbola, Osogbo

A sex worker living in Ofatedo, Osun State has reportedly developed strange illness by vomiting blood, after an encounter with some suspected ritualists in a hotel around West bypass, Osogbo.

Some residents of Adetunji Estate, Osogbo, who spoke to our correspondent on Sunday explained that the victim, whose identity could not be immediately ascertained, was dumped by some unknown men at the entrance to the street late on Friday, almost unconscious.

A resident, who simply identified herself as Tope, during an interview with The PUNCH

blood after proposed threesome

on Sunday, explained that immediately the lady was seen struggling to move after she was dropped by a motorcycle in the area, men of Amotekun Corps were contacted.

Speaking further on the incident, the Field Commander, Osun Amotekun Corps, Mr. Amitolu Shittu, said after receiving distress call, he led the team that visited the scene.

Shittu, who said the victim was able to explain what transpired between her and three suspected ritualists, who had taken her from another hotel located in Ofatedo area, said while still being interrogated, the lady suddenly started vomiting blood.

He further said, "I led the team that visited entrance to Adetunji Estate that evening. Before she started vomiting blood, the lady told me she was living in Ofatedo, though an indigene of Sagamu in Ogun State.

"She said three men had taken her from another hotel in Ofatedo and took her to a hotel around West Bye pass. At the hotel, they told her she would have sex with the three of them, but the lady said she told them she could only have sex with two men.

"While bathing with one of the men, the suspected ritualist hit the lady with a charm on the head and she became almost unconscious."

"She was still talking to me when she started vomiting blood. Because it was late, I asked the night guard working in the area to watch over her, while I arrange ambulance. By the time I returned to the scene, that her friend she told me of, had brought a bus to carry her. It was such a pathetic story."

Shittu said operatives of the corps already had some leads through the mobile phone of the victim and promised that the suspects would be apprehended.

ows to end illegal checkpoints

Speaking on the development, the police boss, who led a team of police officers to Ore in Odigbo Local Government Area of the state on Sunday, said indiscipline will never be allowed under his watch.

He said there would be an end to the checkpoints on the expressway.

Oyeyemi said, "We don't want a situation where travellers will suffer for several hours due to traffic jam. That is why we are here to talk to our men and restore sanity.

"The police will not tolerate indiscipline of any kind. So, any police officer caught blocking the road, using stick or whatsoever, will never go unpunished.

"To sustain this, we will continue to visit this road without giving them prior notice. Motorists plying this road should have a rest of mind that they are safe."