

In another development, a three-year-old boy, Aliyu Lawan, has drowned in a well at Dan Mako town in the Dambatta LGA of the state.

Read Also

- ▶ 149 killed in Edo road crashes in 2021, says FRSC
- ▶ Ondo driver crushes motorcyclist, flees, residents burn truck
- ▶ 3,121 killed in road crashes in six months – NBS report

“A rescue team from the Dambatta Fire Station removed the body and handed him over to his father, Malam Lawan,” Abdullahi added.

The fire service spokesman urged members of the public to be vigilant and always construct wells with solid covers and adequate barricades to avoid a recurrence of such incidents.