Terrorists have killed one person and abducted several others in communities in Munya Local Government Area of Niger state.

The attack was said to have begun at about 2 pm on Friday when the terrorists attacked Zazzaga market, unleashing terror on the people.

They (terrorists) were said to have spread themselves into different communities in the area from the market.

Saturday PUNCH gathered that the terrorists killed one person at Fuka, abducted a yet to be identified number of persons and burnt down houses and food barns.
