

Home	News	Sports	Metro Plus	Entertainment	Politics	Business	More
------	------	--------	------------	---------------	----------	----------	------

Daud Olatunji 8 April 2022

Kindly share this story:

PunchNG Menu

Video

Spice

Special Features

Education

Sex & Relationship

Interview

Columns

Opinion

Privacy Settings

James

Men of the Ogun State Police Command have arrested a 23-year-old man, Ikenna Jam, for raping and killing a 29-year-old graduate of the Obafemi Awolowo University, Adefisayo.

The state Police Public Relations Officer, DSP Abimbola Oyeyemi, in a statement on Thursday, said the suspect lived in the same compound with the deceased.

He explained that James sought the help of his friend and broke into Adefisayo's apartment at night through the ceiling while she was fast asleep.

The suspect was said to have raped and strangled her.

The PPRO said the suspect was caught while coming down from the ceiling after the crime.

His friend, however, escaped from the scene.

Oyeyemi said, "Neighbours, including the parents of the suspect, woke up in the night and discover that the apartment of the deceased had been broken into.

"The neighbours there and then invited local vigilantes to the scene, and while at the scene, (James) was seen coming down from the ceiling where he had been hiding after the day.

"He was quickly held down while a distress call was made to the police at the Ogun State Police Command headquarters.

"The Ogijo DPO, CSP Onatufeh Umoh, quickly led his men to the scene and got the sus

