One person was feared dead after he was shot at Iloro Area of Ife on Saturday when some youths protesting the death of one Olufemi Oriyomi, in detention, clashed with police.

Sunday PUNCH learnt that some police operatives passing through Iloro, where some protesters had gathered, clashed with the youth and one of the protesters was reportedly shot.

But the spokesperson for Osun Police Command, Yemisi Opalola, when contacted, confirmed that one person was shot, but said the victim did not die.
