

Another two villagers were hacked to death in their community in Logo LGA of the state.

A resident told our correspondent that the NSCDC personnel encountered some armed invaders who opened gunfire on them and killed two in the process while others who sustained gun wounds were rushed to the hospital.

A community leader in Logo said that the two villagers were killed on Thursday evening at Tse Tume in Turan council ward of Logo while they were working on their farm.

The community leader who did not want to be mentioned gave identity of the deceased to include; Terkende Injarwua and Mfaiga Ukor, adding that their corpses had been recovered and buried on Friday.