

Troops kill terrorists, recover arms in Borno

Solomon Odeniyi, Abuja

2

The Nigerian Army on Friday said troops neutralised several Islamic of West African Province/Boko Haram terrorists in Lassa and Kelle villages in Borno State.

The Army noted that the terrorists were killed during an aggressive clearance operations embarked on by troops of 115 Battalion.

In a statement on its verified Twitter account, the Army added that the troops also recovered one gun truck, two civilian Hilux vehicles, arms and ammunition.

It read, "Troops of 115 Battalion neutralised several ISWAP/BokoHaram terrorists during an aggressive clearance operation around Lassa & Kelle villages in Borno State on Thursday, 9 June 2022.

"Troops also recovered one gun truck, two civilian Hilux vehicles, arms & ammunition."