

Katsina terrorists invade community, kill farmer, abduct women

Kindly share this story:

By Olaide Oyelude

5th August 2022

A farmer, Abdulrasheed Manna, has been killed after suspected terrorists attacked Dansauni village, in the Batagarawa Local Government Area of Katsina State.

Two people were also injured in the attack while an unspecified number of people, who were said to be women, were reportedly abducted by the hoodlums.

Residents claimed that the bandits struck in the morning, adding that three people were killed.

Related News

N'Assembly leaders fret, rally security chiefs for protection

We're prepared for terrorists' attack on Lagos - PPRO

Terrorists assembling weapons to attack Buhari's state - NSCDC

Manna was reportedly attacked after he arrived in the village from Katsina town.

Sources said the terrorists struck in the neighbouring communities of Kwarin Maikotso and Kore three days ago, where they killed two people and kidnapped eight others.

A spokesman for the Katsina State Police Command, Gambo Isah, confirmed the incident, adding that one person was killed and two injured.