

Lagos lottery manager killed during argument over debt

Kindly share this story:

By Segun Adewole

10th August 2022

Lagos State Police Commissioner, Abiodun Alabi

The Lagos State Police Command on Tuesday said it arrested a 35-year-old man, Kamalideen Raji, over the murder of a lottery manager in the Badagry area of the state.

Raji was said to have, on August 2, 2022, stabbed the manager twice in the neck over a disagreement about an unpaid debt.

The victim was rushed to the Badagry General Hospital, where he gave up the ghost.

Related News

Ritual: Pastor, accomplice to die for beheading seven-year-old

Teenagers remanded for murder, ex-convict bags six-month jail

How I strangled lady to death over N50,000 debt – Suspect

The state Police Public Relations Officer, SP Benjamin Hundeyin, said the suspect was arrested by the Area K Police Command.

“The Lagos State Commissioner of Police, CP Abiodun Alabi, has directed that the case be transferred to the State Criminal Investigation Department, Panti, for further investigations and prosecution,” he added.