

Terrorists invade Kaduna farm, kill soldier, abduct two

Kindly share this story:

By Godwin Isenyo

28th August 2022

Some terrorists on Wednesday were said to have invaded a farm in Anchau town in the Kubau Local Government Area of Kaduna State where a soldier was killed and two farm workers officials of the farm abducted.

Our correspondent learnt that among those abducted by the terrorists during the attack was a Zimbabwean.

According to a source, security operatives are currently combing nearby bushes in search of the abductees.

Related News

Katsina police kill terrorists, recover stolen cows, others

Soldiers killed by terrorists buried amid tears

Terrorists attack Kaduna, kidnap Ango Abdullahi's in-law, others

Details of the incident were sketchy at the time this report was filed.

Neither the state government nor the state police command confirmed the attack.

The state police spokesperson, Mohammed Jalige, neither picked calls made to his mobile nor replied to a text message sent.