

Cultists kill NURTW boss in Lagos

Kindly share this story:

By Segun Adewole and Dayo Oyewo

29th August 2022

Lagos State Police Public Relations Officer, SP Benjamin Hundeyin

Suspected cultists, on Sunday, allegedly killed a man around Mile 12, in the Kosofe Local Government Area of Lagos State.

Unconfirmed reports identified the deceased as Sulaimon Onaolapo, popularly known as Arikun, who was said to be the Chairman of the National Union of Road Transport Workers in the area.

PUNCH Metro reports that a picture circulating on social media showed the victim's corpse lying on the ground in a pool of blood. Beside the corpse were pieces of wood.

The clash was confirmed by the Senior Special Assistant to the Governor of Lagos State on New Media, Jibril Gawat, on Twitter.

Related News

One feared killed by cultists in Lagos

19 arrested as death toll rises to six in Lagos cult clash

Three feared dead as cult members clash in Lagos

He wrote, "YES. But Security Agents are fully on top of the matter. Cult Clash. One Suleiman Lawal aka "Arikun" was hit."

Confirming the incident, state Police Public Relations Officer, Benjamin Hundeyin, said one person was killed but failed to identify the victim.

Hundeyin said, “Normalcy has been restored in the area. One person was killed. No arrest has been made yet.”