

Kwara State

Kwara State Governor, AbdulRahman AbdulRazaq; the Emir of Ilorin, Alhaji Ibrahim Sulu-Gambari; and former President of the Senate, Dr Bukola Saraki, have mourned a popular Islamic cleric, Abdulganiy Aboto, and his two aides who died on Friday in the recent flooding in the state.

The corpses of Aboto and his two aides were recovered by the State Fire Service from a river opposite Olusola Saraki Abattoir along Sobi Army Barracks road, Ilorin with a Toyota Yaris Car on Saturday.

“We received with shock and sadness the deaths of the popular Islamic cleric Sheikh Aboto and a few others whose identities are not yet known. As faithful, we accept the judgment of our creator,” the state governor said, in a statement by his Chief Press Secretary, Rafiu Ajakaye,
