

Lagosian drowns in pool, police search for family

Naomi Chima

THE Lagos State Police Command has confirmed the death of a man, identified only as Andrew, who drowned in a swimming pool in the Nigerian Communication Commission, Digital Bridge Institute on Nitel Road, Cappa, in the Oshodi area of the state.

The state Police Public Relations Officer, Benjamin

Hundeyin, stated that the incident was reported at the Mushin Police Station by the Lagos State Emergency Management Agency on October 9, 2022.

He noted that Andrew was rushed to a hospital by LASEMA workers and confirmed dead by a doctor.

Hundeyin stated that efforts were being made to indentify the deceased's relatives as no one had come to claim his corpse since the day of the incident.