

③ Hit-and-run driver kills man on Lagos-Abeokuta highway

A hit-and-run driver on Friday killed a middle-aged man (name unknown), near Owode-Ijako bus-stop, on the Lagos-Abeokuta Expressway.

The Owode-Ijako Unit Commander, Ogun Traffic Compliance and Enforcement Corps, Mrs Temitope Oseni, confirmed the incident to the News Agency of Nigeria on Friday in Ota, Ogun.

Oseni explained that the incident which occurred around Owode slope before the bus-stop, inbound the Lagos-Abeokuta Expressway, happened in the early hours of Friday.

She said, "The unknown man was knocked down by a suspected hit-and-run driver due to speeding. The lifeless body of the victim was still at the scene of the incident, but we have contacted the authorities in charge for evacuation from the road."

The unit commander warned motorists against speeding and urged them to always slow down while approaching pedestrian crossing.

She advised the people to be patient and careful while crossing roads.
