

Six die in Kwara auto crash

15th February 2023

By Tunde Oyekola

Kindly share this story:

Six persons have been killed in a fatal road accident which occurred on Wednesday at Ganmo along Ilorin/Omu-Aran highway, Kwara State on Wednesday.

It was gathered that the multiple accidents involved an ash colour commercial Suzuki bus with registration number BDJ-134XB and a blue colour DAF (ABC435XN) loaded with onions coming from Sokoto State.

Eyewitnesses attributed the cause of the accident to overspeeding.

Related News

Seven killed, 21 injured in Kwara crash, FRSC blames speeding, overloading

10 killed, many injured in Kwara auto crash

Three killed in Kwara auto crash

The Kwara State commander of the Federal Road Safety Corps, Ade Ogidan, confirmed the incident and said that nine others sustained various degrees of injury.

“Yes, the accident involved 15 people, all males, with six killed and nine others sustaining head injuries and fractures.

“The victims have been taken to the UITH, Ilorin for treatment while the corpses have been deposited at the morgue of the hospital,” he added.