

Man stabs co-worker to death

Naomi Chima

A Yaba Magistrates' Court on Tuesday remanded one Nyagh Isaiah for the alleged murder of his co-worker, Kingsley Kator, in the Mushin area of Lagos State.

The 35-year-old was remanded by Magistrate P.E Nwaka on one count of murder.

According to the prosecution, Thomas Nurudeen, the defendant committed the crime on April 9, 2023, around 1pm in the Ojuelegba area of Lagos State.

Nurudeen told the court that the deceased was murdered while the two of them were fighting each other using arms and a broken bottle.

According to the charge, the offence contravened Section 222 and is punishable under Section 223 of the Criminal Law of Lagos State, Nigeria, 2015.

The charge read, "That you, Nyagh Isaiah, on April 9, 2023, around 1pm, at the Ojuelegba area of Lagos State, in the Lagos Magisterial District did unlawfully kill one Kingsley Kator, aged 27 years by stabbing him to death with a broken bottle and thereby committed an offence contrary to Section 223 of the Criminal Law of Lagos State, Nigeria, 2015."

The prosecutor prayed the court to remand the defendant at the Ikoyi Custodial Centre pending the issuance of legal advice from the office of the Director of Public Prosecution.

The defendant's plea was, however, not taken and in his ruling, the magistrate, Nwaka, granted the prosecutor's request and ordered that the defendant be remanded pending the DPP's advice.

Nwaka also adjourned the case till May 25, 2023, for trial.

3 Suspect pushes pe

Peter Dada, Akure

THE Ondo State Police Command on Tuesday said it had arrested a man, Rafiu Akinwale, over the death of one Adesoji Adesida.

Akinwale allegedly pushed Adesida while the latter was trying to settle a fight between the suspect and his girlfriend at a funeral held at the International Cultural and Event Centre, the Dome in Akure, the state capital on Friday.

An eyewitness said, "As the two
