

Terrorists kill two in fresh Southern Kaduna attack

ISRAEL BULUS

TWO people in Mawofi village, Atyap Chiefdom in Zangon Kataf Local Government Area of Kaduna State were again killed by suspected Fulani militias.

A sourced, who confirmed the incident to Sunday PUNCH said so many houses were also burnt down by the attackers who stormed the village in their large numbers on Friday night.

He said the attackers move from one village to another in Atyap, perpetuating their mission without any authority coming up with proactive measures to avert the ugly situation."

He added, "It is now for the world to see and judge if these attacks are reprisals or purely attacks by the perpetrators to achieve their evil mission. Whatever happens, God is the better judge of all things, and will at the appropriate time, perfect His will in Atyap land."

He explained that for now some people are going round searching for their loved ones to ascertain the level of destruction made by the attackers.

When contacted for confirmation of the incident, the Kaduna Police Command spokesman, DSP Mohammed Jalige, did not respond to a call put to his phone as of the time of filing this report.
