

Another accident along the Kwale-Asaba Highway in Delta State also claimed the lives of four supporters of the Bayelsa Queens Football Club.

The Governor of Bayelsa State, Douye Diri, while expressing sadness over the accidents that killed 10 Ijaw indigenes, described the day as Black Sunday.

Related News

17 killed in Osun tanker fire, Lagos–Ibadan Expressway, Delta crashes

In a statement by the governor’s Chief Press Secretary, Daniel Alabrah, on Monday, Diri said, “On behalf of the government and people of Bayelsa State, I extend our deepest sympathies to the families of the deceased.