

centre. we don't have chairs,

the PHC is being financed with telephone on Thursday.

① Rampaging

Adeyinka Adedipe, Benin

① At least, 10 persons have been reported killed in suspected cult-related clashes in Benin and Auchi in Edo State in the last three days.

② The latest of the killings were said to be four victims reportedly shot dead on Thursday at Upper Mission, the Okhun and Oluku areas of Benin.

The incidents in Benin, sources said were connected with the unending supremacy

Edo cultists kill revenue collector, others battle involving members of the Black Axe Confraternity, Maphite and Eiye groups which has snowballed into the killing of youths in different areas in the state capital.

PUNCH Metro also gathered that a man and his girlfriend were shot at a popular hotel around Aikhionbare in GRA of Benin by suspected cultists who allegedly operated with an unregistered Sienna Space bus.

The victims are said to be currently recuperating at an undisclosed hospital in the state.

③ Earlier on Wednesday, a revenue collector simply identified as 'Mopol', was also said to have been gunned down around Okhoro Junction by New Benin.

④ Similarly, one Ibrahim Happy said to be a final year student of the Auchi Polytechnic and another revenue collector whose identity could not be ascertained, were shot dead on Wednesday in Auchi.

The late student was said to be a victim of a stray bullet.

Our correspondent learnt that she was shot dead at the front of the institution's gate by suspected cultists who were reportedly after the revenue collector.

A lecturer at the polytechnic, who spoke on condition of anonymity, while confirming the incident, said the area had been tense since the incident occurred on Wednesday.

"Cult-related clashes have